

Brent Luu (刘国宝), PharmD, BCPS, BCACP

Dr. Luu is a clinical assistant professor for the Master of Science – Nurse Practitioner and Master of Health Sciences – Physician Assistant Studies as well as the Master Entry Program in Nursing at the Betty Irene Moore School of Nursing at UC Davis. He teaches the pharmacology series courses for these clinical programs. With more than 18 years of pharmacy practice and management, Dr. Luu has worked in various pharmacy practice settings, including acute care, ambulatory care, oncology and home infusion.

Prior to teaching, Dr. Luu was a clinical pharmacist practitioner for Kaiser Permanente, a Wal-Mart Pharmacy Manager and a co-owner of a West Sacramento independent pharmacy.

Dr. Luu's focus is on patient care and medication safety. As an educator, he hopes to prepare students to optimize pharmacotherapy outcomes while minimizing adverse drug events as well as improving patient and medication safety. His clinical interests include chronic disease management, neurology, and pain management.

Dr. Luu earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biochemistry from San Francisco State University in 1995. He earned a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from University of the Pacific School of Pharmacy in 2000. More recently, he has earned both the board certification as a pharmacotherapy specialist and the ambulatory care pharmacist.
